

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Nursery

Teacher:
Assistant:

This will be available to all teachers and volunteers working at PAGE each Friday. There will be no charge for this service. Two and three year olds will be participating in learning games, songs, and story time. Those children old enough will be able to enjoy the outside playground. Those children staying all day will need a lunch. A morning and afternoon snack will be provided for them. An afternoon nap will start between 12:30 and 1:00 PM.

Kindergarten 4-5

AM Teacher: Becky Howard, 890-2517
Assistant:

This class will consist of phonetics, and penmanship. The children will learn their letters from A-Z, colors, and shapes. They will have story time, craft time, and music time. We will study famous Americans, vocations, and good citizenship. We will also focus on health, safety, etiquette, and Scripture memorization. This class will be a learning experience.

Students will need to supply a plastic holding box. The supplies to go in this box will be supplied by SAGE. Parents will be asked to sign up to help with a weekly snack and drink.

Art Fee: $10.00 per semester
Computer Fee: TBD

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)

Class Descriptions

2008-2009

1st and 2nd Grade

Art	Mrs. Selvy – 673-6868
Fee:	$15.00 per semester – covers supplies
Computers	Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077
Description:	Basic Computer Skills – Learn the parts of the computer from the inside out.
Text:	Typing Instructor for Kids
Every Day is a Special Day	Mrs. Corey – 423-3160
Description:	We will celebrate the popular and the not so popular special days of the calendar year. We will develop vocabulary and globe skills.
History	Mrs. Mitchell – 397-6673
Description:	We will be learning about community life in colonial times, and how and why England's involvement focusing also on the Monarch's role.
Text:	Heritage Studies 2 by Bob Jones University, 2 nd ed. (copyright 1996/1998). Moore Expressions has the used books for $6.00 to $10.00.
Fee:	$5.00
Math	Mrs. Patton – 451-8335
Description:	Join with other 1 st and 2 nd graders to reinforce basic math skills that students are learning at home; addition, subtraction, measuring, telling time, money, etc. . . Drills and games will be part of the practical, hands-on, and fun class.
Fee:	$5.00
Music	Mrs. Dunlevy – 897-5860
Text:	In this class, students will receive basic music instruction in the types of instruments we play, along with how to begin reading notes, note value, and how to use our voices and bodies as instruments. We will also be discussing biblical instructions on worshipping God, as well as WHY we worship God.
Phonics	Mrs. Cammel - 484-6553/647-1170
Description:	Phonics skills will be sharpened using the Wilson Reading Method and Sing, Spell, Read and Write . Students will play games and work on drills to help strengthen their reading skills.
Fee:	$5.00, this will cover the cost of phonics cards and folder.
P.E.	Mrs. Harris- 356-0959

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Description: This class teaches the children through movement education, exploring and non-locomotor movement in game situations.

Fee: $10.00

Science Mrs. Patton- 451-8335

Description: Understand God as creator and learn science by doing science. This hands-on class will cover such topics as water, food science, earth and space science, energy and more. Possible science fair at the end of the year!

Text: The Best of Wonder Science (teacher provided)

Fee: $5.00

Supplies: 1-inch 3-ring binder

Sign Language Mrs. Clay – 685-8864

Description: We'll have a great time playing games, singing songs, and learning ASL sign language. Online resources are available for the serious student.

Text: None. We'll use reproducible sheets.

Fee: $3.00

Supplies: Students will need to keep a folder and bring it each week.

Spanish I Mrs. Kim - 483-1502

Description: Students will begin learning Spanish vocabulary words based on the Power Glide curriculum. Teacher will provide all materials needed for class. Class fee helps with cost of incentives.

Text: None

Fee: $5.00

Supplies: Folder or binder in which to keep handouts.

Writing Mrs. Fitzpatrick – 638-3970

Description: In this class we will focus on making writing fun. Time will be spend allowing the children to think of ways to express themselves in written form, as well as artistically and orally. We will be using one workbook for each grade level throughout the school year: Writing Skills (Grade 1) and (Grade 2). The grade your child is in, will determine which book you will get. Each workbook has orange, red and yellow stripes on the cover, are in association with Harcourt Family Learning, and are both published by Spark Publishing 2006. All workbooks and journals will be kept at school.

Text: Harcourt Family Learning Workbook Grade 1 Writing Skills or Grade 2 Writing Skills (depending on the child's grade level), can be purchased for $6.95 at B. Dalton Books in the Chesapeake Square Mall or online at www.flashkidsbooks.com.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Supplies: One-subject spiral notebook for journaling and taking weekly spelling tests.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

3rd and 4th Grade

Art Fee:	Mrs. Selvy – 673-6868 $15.00 per semester – covers supplies
Chorus (4th only) Fee:	Mr. Mazurik - Dependent on the number of students in class.
Computers Description:	Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077 Basic Computer Skills – Learn the parts of the computer from the inside out.
History Description:	Mrs. Mitchell – 397-6673 We will be learning about the continents and America. (Echoes of History). We will have several worksheets to go with each lesson which can be done in class or taken home.
Text:	Heritage Studies 4 by Bob Jones University, 2 nd ed. (copyright 1997/1999), Moore Expressions has the used books for $6.00 to $10.00.
Fee:	$5.00
Math Games Description:	Mrs. Patton – 451-8335 Join with other 3 rd and 4 th graders for hands-on math games and drills focused on reinforcing basic 3 rd /4 th grade math skills of addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, fractions, measuring, etc. . .
Fee:	$5.00
Music Text:	Mrs. Dunlevy – 897-5860 In this class, students will receive basic music instruction in the types of instruments we play, along with how to begin reading notes, note value, and how to use our voices and bodies as instruments. We will also be discussing biblical instructions on worshipping God, as well as WHY we worship
P.E. Description:	Mrs. Harris- 356-0959 This class teaches the children through movement education, exploring and non-locomotor movement in game situations.
Fee:	$10.00
Reading & Writing Description:	Mrs. Mitchell – 397-6673 We will read the books, discuss the stories, have question and answer time. We will also do some creative writing which will entail learning to write paragraphs and developing ideas. This reading book also has poetry and vocabulary words.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Text: Worlds of Wonder 3/7 by A Beka (copyright 1996). Moore Expression has these books used for $6.00

Fee: $5.00

Science

Mrs. Patton- 451-8335

Description: Understand God as creator and learn science by doing science. This hands-on class will cover such topics as water, food science, earth and space science, energy and more. Possible science fair at the end of the year!

Text: The Best of Wonder Science (teacher provided)

Fee: $5.00

Supplies: 1-inch 3-ring binder

Sign Language

Mrs. Clay – 685-8864

Description: We'll have a great time playing games, singing songs, and learning ASL sign language. Online resources are available for the serious student.

Text: None. We'll use reproducible sheets.

Fee: $3.00

Supplies: Students will need to keep a folder and bring it each week.

Spanish I

Mrs. Kim - 483-1502

Description: Students will begin learning Spanish vocabulary words based on the Power Glide curriculum. Teacher will provide all materials needed for class. Class fee helps with cost of incentives.

Text: None

Fee: $5.00

Supplies: Folder or binder in which to keep handouts.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

5th and 6th Grade

Art Fee:	Mrs. Selvy – 673-6868 $15.00 per semester – covers supplies
Beg. Computers Description: Supplies:	Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077 Basic Computer Skills – Learn the parts of the computer from the inside out. Learn to type using “Typing Instructor For Kids.” Work on building typing skills. Typing Instructor for Kids CD can be purchased through Scholastic
Chorus Fee:	Mr. Mazurik - Dependent on the number of students in class.
Critical Thinking Description: Text:	Mrs. Haynes – 283-5793 Topics cover patterns, imagery, relationships, analogies, sequences, syllogisms, deduction, inferring, logical reasoning and logical notation. Critical Thinking Activities; Logic Liftoff; Orbiting with Logic (does not need to be bought by student.
Economics Description: Text:	Mrs. Haynes – 874-5463 We will learn about money, inflation, the stock market, etc. from the text and other resources. Whatever Happened to Penny Candy?
Geometry Description: Text: Supplies:	Mrs. Haynes – 283-5793 A hands-on learning approach. We will use a compass and straight edge to discover various geometric relationships, the way the ancient mathematicians did, (such as bisecting angles and constructing parallel lines). This is great preparation for high school geometry. Key to Geometry; Student Workbook 4, 5 & 6 (at Moore Expressions) Compass, straight edge (not a ruler)
Great Artists Description: Fee:	Mrs. Corey – 423-3160 Class based on a video series by Feature Films for Families. We will develop a timeline and touch on different media and styles. $2.00
Journalism Description:	Mrs. Cammel – 484-6553/647-1170 We will study the basic rules of journalism. Students will put together a monthly newsletter to be passed out to families. They will learn how to use the computer to publish the newsletter. Photojournalism will also be studied.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Supplies: A digital camera would be useful, but not necessary. Note pad and writing utensils.

P.E. Mrs. Harris- 356-0959
Description: This class teaches the children through movement education, exploring and non-locomotor movement in game situations.
Fee: $10.00

Sign Language Mrs. Clay – 685-8864
Description: We'll have a great time playing games, singing songs, and learning ASL sign language. Online resources are available for the serious student.
Text: None. We'll use reproducible sheets.
Fee: $3.00
Supplies: Students will need to keep a folder and bring it each week.

Spanish I Mrs. Kim - 483-1502
Description: Students will begin learning Spanish vocabulary words based on the Power Glide curriculum. Teacher will provide all materials needed for class. Class fee helps with cost of incentives.
Text: None
Fee: $5.00
Supplies: Folder or binder in which to keep handouts.

World Geography Mrs. Corey – 423-3160
Description: Around the World Geography. The class will develop an all-around knowledge of key geographic terms and locations. Homework will be given.
Fee: $5.00

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Middle School

Advanced Spanish Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077

American History Mrs. Carey – 852-2855

Description: We will touch on settlement times, but I really want to work more this year on the time from the presidents on. We will be looking at history through the experiences of each of our presidents and will work our way to the present.

Text: BJU The American Republican, 2nd edition, copyright 2000. This retails for $39.00 but it's been out for a few years, so you can probably find a used copy).

Fee: $5.00

Composition & Study Skills Mrs. Dunlevy – 897-5860

Description: In this class, students will learn important skills in order to improve their composition skills and read textbooks more efficiently and effectively. Also, a good portion of the class will be spent developing research skills. Topics covered will be writing paragraphs, essays, and research papers; main ideas; reference skills; figurative language; reading literature; developing logical thinking; and evaluation of fact and opinion.

Computers Mr. Jordan – 249-4506

Description: Microsoft Office Business Applications – Using Office products effectively. A review of some helpful tips for Microsoft Windows, file management and individual treatment on Microsoft Word, Excel, (Publisher or Power Point), Access, the GIMP as well as some other useful software products provided by the instructor. We will cover beginning and advanced topics to get students up to speed using these tools (and other products like them). Learn how to get the most out of those costly products for everyday tasks and those you might only do occasionally. This class will take two grading periods to complete.

Text: (4) Barcharts Quickstudy Guides (1) for each Program, total of $20.00 & additional handouts provided by instructor.

Fee: See instructor

Supplies: USB Memory Stick, flash or thumb drive (of at least 256MB) available at Wal Mart, Best Buy or Circuit City. A 512MB drive costs around $5. The computers used do not have a zip or CD writable drive so a zip disk or blank CDs are not useful. Having a high memory storage disk is advisable especially when we start to study Access 2003. Students are expected to come prepared to each class with writing materials, pens, pencils, paper for taking notes and other assignments.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Drama	Mrs. Fitzpatrick – 638-3970
Description:	In addition to exposing students to famous plays, dramas and playwrights, we will form some of these genres ourselves; the goal being to give each student a platform to express themselves through drama. Students will be expected to write their own mini-drama and perform it for the class. Much of this class will come from the students themselves and what they'd like to see and get from this experience together. There will be improvisation exercise and an opportunity to perform for our Lord in front of audiences TBD. There will be homework, but most of it will be self-exploration exercises and journaling, therefore, a composition notebook will be expected for this class. There will be times when props, etc. will be needed to be brought in from home and each quarter a research paper will be due regarding a student's favorite artist, playwright, etc. Class participation is a big part of this class as well as the ability to allow classmates to critique your work. This class will be Christ-centered and God-honoring.
Supplies:	Composition Notebook
Entrepreneurship	Mrs. Brass – 725-0822
Description:	This is a course in perseverance. Students will start a business and run it the entire school year. Students will perform business management techniques and receive talks, encouragement and mentorship from local entrepreneurs.
Fee:	$10.00
Supplies:	$20.00 minimum startup money
Guitar I	Mrs. Dunlevy – 897-5860
Description:	This class is for all levels of guitar players. Individual attention will be given to each student in order to move them further in their guitar playing. In this class, beginning students will be taught basic chords for guitar playing and different methods of strumming and picking. The focus of the class will be primarily on preparing students for playing music to help various groups worship. All music that the students will be expected to practice will be worship songs, praise songs, and hymns. Some emphasis on original compositions will be made as well.
Text:	A chord chart book, possibly a guitar book later in the year.
Supplies:	Guitar (able to be tuned), guitar tuner
Home Economics	Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077
Description:	Students will learn the basics of home management skills in order to become effective and efficient at running their own homes as adults. Topics will include, but are not limited to healthy and frugal choices in baking and cooking, mastering different cooking/baking techniques, cleaning and hospitality.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Journalism	Mrs. Cammel – 484-6553/647-1170
Description:	We will study the basic rules of journalism. Students will put together a monthly newsletter to be passed out to families. They will learn how to use the computer to publish the newsletter. Photojournalism will also be studied.
Supplies:	A digital camera would be useful, but not necessary. Note pad and writing utensils.
Movies thru Literature	Mrs. Clay – 685-8864
Description:	This course will be 50% composition, 50% analysis of literature elements (vocabulary, grammar, comprehension). Class participation will make up a large part of the grade. You can find a full description, as well as a list of all the movies we will use on www.amazon.com . Search the title then click under the photo to search inside. You are responsible to have the movies on schedule. We will watch a new one every two weeks. Your student will need to watch the movie a minimum to two times. Utilizing NETFLIX as a resource will make for a smooth year. I will be assigning Chariots of Fire the first day (last on the table on context).
Text:	Movies as Literature by Kathryn and Richard Stout, Student Text
Personal Finance	Mrs. Brass – 725-0822
Description:	Students will learn how to perform money management tasks through examining financial concepts and decision-making through illustration, real life problems, and mathematical computation as well as games.
Text:	Hands on Banking & Rich Dad Poor Dad for Teens
Fee:	$16.00 for book
Supplies:	Notebook, calculator
Physical Education	Mrs. Harris - 365-0959
Description:	This course develops skills for participation in games and sporting activities. Students are given the opportunity to find an activity that they can continue throughout their lives to promote fitness as an adult.
Fee:	$10.00
Physical Science	Mrs. Ponseti – 365-0585/642-7001
Description:	The text is an overview of aspects of God’s creation, weather, chemistry, geology, etc. Quizzes, tests, oral presentations, 1 paper due at the end of the year, plus a few field trips will all be components. Some in-class, hands-on experiments will be done as well.
Text:	A Beka Science of the Physical Creation , 2 nd ed.
Fee:	$10.00

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Pre-Algebra

Mrs. Mitchell – 897-5860

Description:

Lessons will be covered sequentially. There is homework every week. Comprehensive tests are done every four weeks.

Text:

Saxon Algebra ½ text, Second Edition; ISBN 0-939798-45-X.

Public Speaking

Mr. Jordan -249-4506

Description:

This class will be a practical study on public speaking with a focus on persuasive speeches and conversation. Students will be given the opportunity to develop their skills in selecting, researching, organizing and preparing to give formal and informal speeches on topics of importance as well as learning how to effectively communicate their views on their areas of greatest interest.

Text:

The Art of Public Speaking by Stephen E. Lucas, 5th edition

Fee:

$5.00

Supplies:

Students are expected to come to class prepared with writing materials, pens, pencils, paper for taking notes and other assignments.

Spanish I

Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077

Description:

Learn vocabulary, grammar, to read, use of dictionary to translate paragraphs to Spanish. Learn verb conjugation in Spanish and hold conversations.

Text:

Spanish for Mastery I; Webster's English/Spanish Dictionary

Fee:

$2.00 book rental

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)

Class Descriptions

2008-2009

High School

4 Plays of Shakespeare

Mrs. Haden – 838-8089

Description:

The students will read The Merchant of Venice, Macbeth, Henry IV Part I, and Henry V. Coursework will include short papers, tests, and participation.

Text:

The plays listed above, any unabridged original language edition will do.

Advanced Spanish

Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077

Algebra I

Mr. Funk – 898-4910

Description:

This is a 2-hour class with 1 hour before lunch and the 2nd hour after lunch. Homework and tests are assigned each week. Copies of tests are provided.

Text:

Saxon Algebra I, 3rd edition, ISBN 1-56577-134-6, copyright 1997

American Govt.

Mrs. Carey – 852-2855

Description:

This is a hands-on government class! With elections around the corner, we will be starting there. What makes a good president according to the Constitution (not the media)? How do you know how to evaluate the candidates? What issues are important ones? After the elections, we will be spending more time back in the book looking at the Constitution, how our government is set-up, and what we can do to be effective and godly citizens. If possible, we want to see our government first hand, either in Richmond or hopefully in D.C.

Text:

American Government, BJU 2nd ed. 2004 copyright. It retails at BJU for $35.00, but it's been out for a few years, so you can probably find a used copy.

Fee:

$5.00

American History

Mrs. Carey – 852-2855

Description:

We will touch on settlement times, but I really want to work more this year on the time from the presidents on. We will be looking at history through the experiences of each of our presidents and will work our way to the present.

Text:

BJU The American Republican, 2nd edition, copyright 2000. This retails for $39.00 but it's been out for a few years, so you can probably find a used copy).

Fee:

$5.00

Calculus

Mr. Brass – 846-1911/725-0822

Description:

Calculus was created to quantify physical concepts.

Text:

Schaum's Outline for Calculus (instructor provided)

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Fee: $25.00
Supplies: Scientific Calculator

Chemistry Mrs. Cammel – 484-6553/647-1170
Description: High school chemistry presented as relevant and practical.
Text: A Beka Chemistry Precision and Design 1st edition. I have 7 books available, let me know if you need one.
Fee: $10.00 text rental fee
Supplies: 3-ring binder, tabs, notebook paper, scientific calculator

Chemistry Lab Mrs. Cammel – 484-6553/647-1170
Description: To be taken with lecture. Labs will be done weekly.
Fee: $60.00 for supplies

Composition & Study Skills Mrs. Dunlevy – 897-5860
Description: In this class, students will learn important skills in order to improve their composition skills and read textbooks more efficiently and effectively. Also, a good portion of the class will be spent developing research skills. Topics covered will be writing paragraphs, essays, and research papers; main ideas; reference skills; figurative language; reading literature; developing logical thinking; and evaluation of fact and opinion.

Computers Mr. Jordan – 249-4506
Description: Microsoft Office Business Applications – Using Office products effectively. A review of some helpful tips for Microsoft Windows, file management and individual treatment on Microsoft Word, Excel, (Publisher or Power Point), Access, the GIMP as well as some other useful software products provided by the instructor. We will cover beginning and advanced topics to get students up to speed using these tools (and other products like them). Learn how to get the most out of those costly products for everyday tasks and those you might only do occasionally. This class will take two grading periods to complete.
Text: (4) Barcharts Quickstudy Guides (1) for each Program, total of $20.00 & additional handouts provided by instructor.
Fee: See instructor
Supplies: USB Memory Stick, flash or thumbdrive (of at least 256MB) available at Wal Mart, Best Buy or Circuit City. A 512MB drive costs around $5. The computers used do not have a zip or CD writable drive so a zip disk or blank CDs are not useful. Having a high memory storage disk is advisable especially when we start to study Access 2003. Students are expected to come prepared to each class with writing materials, pens, pencils, paper for taking notes and other assignments.

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Drama	Mrs. Fitzpatrick – 638-3970
Description:	Drama class for Junior and Senior High students will come directly from the students themselves. Each student will have an opportunity to write and perform their won works of art, as well as be given opportunities to work alone and in groups with other students. All works of art will be written and performed from a Christ-centered, Bible-based perspective, and will give voice to the ideas brought about from the students themselves. To keep costs down, I would like the students to use props from home or props that are “makeshift.” Students will participate in critiquing the work of their fellow students and offer positive feedback when necessary. There may be some light reading and/or discussion of various works by Shakespeare, written especially with young people in mind. Any reading will be done with books that are usually attainable at the public library. Students will be graded on participation in class, willingness to grow and effort put forth on all artistic assignments.
Entrepreneurship	Mrs. Brass – 725-0822
Description:	This is a course in perseverance. Students will start a business and run it the entire school year. Students will perform business management techniques and receive talks, encouragement and mentorship from local entrepreneurs.
Fee:	$10.00
Supplies:	$20.00 minimum startup money
Guitar I	Mrs. Dunlevy – 897-5860
Description:	This class is for all levels of guitar players. Individual attention will be given to each student in order to move them further in their guitar playing. In this class, beginning students will be taught basic chords for guitar playing and different methods of strumming and picking. The focus of the class will be primarily on preparing students for playing music to help various groups worship. All music that the students will be expected to practice will be worship songs, praise songs, and hymns. Some emphasis on original compositions will be made as well.
Text:	A chord chart book, possibly a guitar book later in the year.
Supplies:	Guitar (able to be tuned), guitar tuner
Home Economics	Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077
Description:	Students will learn the basics of home management skills in order to become effective and efficient at running their own homes as adults. Topics will include, but are not limited to healthy and frugal choices in baking and cooking, mastering different cooking/baking techniques, cleaning and hospitality.
Journalism	Mrs. Cammel – 484-6553/647-1170

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Description: We will study the basic rules of journalism. Students will put together a monthly newsletter to be passed out to families. They will learn how to use the computer to publish the newsletter. Photojournalism will also be studied.

Supplies: A digital camera would be useful, but not necessary. Note pad and writing utensils.

Movies thru Literature

Mrs. Clay – 685-8864

Description: This course will be 50% composition, 50% analysis of literature elements (vocabulary, grammar, comprehension). Class participation will make up a large part of the grade. You can find a full description, as well as a list of all the movies we will use on www.amazon.com. Search the title then click under the photo to search inside. You are responsible to have the movies on schedule. We will watch a new one every two weeks. Your student will need to watch the movie a minimum to two times. Utilizing NETFLIX as a resource will make for a smooth year. I will be assigning Chariots of Fire the first day (last on the table on context).

Text: Movies as Literature by Kathryn and Richard Stout, Student Text

Personal Finance

Mrs. Brass – 725-0822

Description: Students will learn how to perform money management tasks through examining financial concepts and decision-making through illustration, real life problems, and mathematical computation as well as games.

Text: Hands on Banking & Rich Dad Poor Dad for Teens

Fee: $16.00 for book

Supplies: Notebook, calculator

Physical Education

Mrs. Harris - 365-0959

Description: This course develops skills for participation in games and sporting activities. Students are given the opportunity to find an activity that they can continue throughout their lives to promote fitness as an adult.

Fee: $10.00

Physical Science

Mrs. Ponseti – 365-0585/642-7001

Description: The text is an overview of aspects of God's creation, weather, chemistry, geology, etc. Quizzes, tests, oral presentations, 1 paper due at the end of the year, plus a few field trips will all be components. Some in-class, hands-on experiments will be done as well.

Text: A Beka Science of the Physical Creation, 2nd ed.

Fee: $10.00

Physics

Mr. Brass – 846-1911/725-0822

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Description: College physics will include learning the principles of how nature works through working many problems. It is the only way to get the concepts of physics.

Text: Schaum's Outline of College Physics (included in course fee)

Fee: $25.00

Supplies: Scientific calculator (simpler the better)

Prep. For College Writing Mr. Funk – 898-4910

Description: This is an intensive writing course requiring more than 60 written assignments. Professionally written argumentative essays will be analyzed; original essays will be formulated in class and as homework. Practice note taking will be done in class and the notes will be submitted in summary format as homework. All homework assignments are to be computer printed.

Text: ISBN-13: 9780451627124 (The Lively Art of Writing by PAYNE)
Available by special order from Barnes and Noble.

Fee: None

Public Speaking Mr. Jordan -249-4506

Description: This class will be a practical study on public speaking with a focus on persuasive speeches and conversation. Students will be given the opportunity to develop their skills in selecting, researching, organizing and preparing to give formal and informal speeches on topics of importance as well as learning how to effectively communicate their views on their areas of greatest interest.

Text: The Art of Public Speaking by Stephen E. Lucas, 5th edition

Fee: $5.00

Supplies: Students are expected to come to class prepared with writing materials, pens, pencils, paper for taking notes and other assignments.

SAT Prep Mrs. Haden – 838-8089

Description: Preparatory material for the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Text: The Official SAT Study Guide published by College Board SAT,
ISBN-13: 978-0-87447-718-4

ISBN-10: 0-87447-718-2

Available from Amazon.com for $11.97 + shipping

Spanish I Mrs. Knapp – 886-2077

Description: Learn vocabulary, grammar, to read, use of dictionary to translate paragraphs to Spanish. Learn verb conjugation in Spanish and hold conversations.

Text: Spanish for Mastery I; Webster's English/Spanish Dictionary

Fee: $2.00 book rental

Peninsula Academy for Godly Education (PAGE)
Class Descriptions
2008-2009

Western Civilization Mrs. Clay – 685-8864

Description: From the beginning of mankind to now - - - in 30 weeks?

Text: BJU World History, 2nd edition. Moore Expression has plenty for $24.50.